FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Corossol Software Will Have Booth at 2009 AMSA Conference

COLLIERVILLE, TN, (November 20, 2008) Corossol Software, creators of Centerboard 2.0, will introduce the latest version of their software at the 2009 AMSA (American Moving and Storage Association) Conference in Dallas February 8-11, 2009. Centerboard 1.9 is currently available.

Centerboard is simplifying procedures for several moving and storage companies including Interstate Van Lines and All-American Moving Group. For both of these companies, Centerboard has cut costs and brought a new level of efficiency to their businesses.

The AMSA Conference features entertainment, an awards luncheon, auctions, and an exhibitors' expo. Be sure to stop by the Corossol Software booth, booth 402, to learn more about how Centerboard 2.0 can help your business.
